St Matthew’s C.E. Primary Teaching School, in association with University College London presents:

English Grammar for Primary Teachers
Monday 25th February 2019

Taught by a linguist from the Department of English Language and Literature, University College London

Goals for the day:
- Build confidence and enthusiasm in English grammar subject knowledge
- Develop a rigorous understanding of key grammatical terms and how to apply them
- Learn about developments in the grammatical content of National Curriculum 2014
- Explore principles and methods for effective and meaningful grammar pedagogies in the context of analytical reading and creative writing
- Gain usable and accessible teaching ideas which you can take back to your classroom

Ian Cushing, Teaching Fellow in English Linguistics at UCL

For our online grammar resources: www.englicious.org

To book a place on English Grammar for Teachers:
on Monday 25th February 2019
at St Matthew’s CofE Primary School, Duddeston Manor Road, Birmingham B7 4JR.

10am to 3.30pm
Lunch and refreshments provided
Cost: £150

Email: t.lynch@st-matthews.bham.sch.uk or phone 0121 359 1602 or 07772 843804

We will confirm receipt by email and send out an invoice for payment. Refunds will be made for cancellations no later than 7 days before the training session.